

AMIN YOUSUF

Muhammed Amin Yousuf, Senior Journalist and anchor having vast experience of 28 Years, Master in Economics from University of Sindh. He is the first Pakistani Journalist who became a Member of International Federation Journalists (IFJ) Steering Committee, Vibrant and active leader of Journalists fraternity of Pakistan. Associated with Daily Nawa-i-waqt as Resident Editor Karachi. Serving as Secretary General of Pakistan Media Development Foundation (PMDF), elected twice as Secretary General of Pakistan Federal Union of Journalists (PFUJ), which is the only representative body of working journalists. Devoted himself for the welfare of journalists community. Amin Yousuf also works on building the soft image of Pakistan through International Media and events. He has organized International Media Conferences in Karachi, Islamabad and London.

Amin Yousuf is also an International trainer, having traveled throughout the country to spread awareness in Media about ethics and their basic responsibilities as journalists. He is founder of Association of Television Journalists (ATJ) in Pakistan. Amin Yousuf has also worked with many mainstream Television channels of Pakistan in senior position like Pakistan Television (PTV), SAMAA TV, TV One, and News One. He has traveled more than 17 countries including USA, Canada, UK, Ireland, Europe, Middle East and South East Asia.

Apart from his professional activities Mr Amin Yousuf is well known in social circle. He was first elected as the Joint Secretary of Arts Council of Pakistan Karachi and remained at that position for three years. He is well known for his extraordinary social works, he is founding member of Arts Council housing Society and founder of Hyderabad Scouts open group. He has organized numerous cultural events of National and International level. Working on very important project of SUFISM with the aim to promote peace and love. Amin Yousuf has great interest in Sports, He has also played first class cricket and Organized many events to encourage sports and healthy activities in the Society which includes, Cricket, Car Rally's, Scout Camps and Motor boating, and also launched Journalists support fund with the help of International Journalists organization. Supported dozen of victims journalists and their families. He is participating regularly in various TV talk shows as an analyst.