

MERAJ ABID

Meraj is founding director of Creatify Productions. Originally from Pakistan based in Dublin Ireland holding a MSc degree in Digital Media from Staffordshire University UK and Master degree in Mass Communication from Pakistan.

Before moving to Ireland he began his career as a crime reporter with main daily newspapers based in Islamabad Pakistan.

Meraj has extensive media experience having worked with Dublin Community TV (DCTV), Anna Livia radio FM 103.2 and WDAR 96 FM where he produce his own show “ Friends Lounge “ for many years. He is involved in many film projects from short films to feature film and his work is screened in different film festivals across the globe.

He travelled around Europe to attend many Media Conferences, Seminar, Nation and International Encounter organized by Council of Europe (CoE) as Media Specialist mainly Media Against Racism in Sport (MARS) and Media in Europe for Diversity Inclusiveness (MEDIANE) his work can be found on www.coe.int,

He is active member of NUJ The National Union Of Journalists for many years. The National Union of Journalists (NUJ) is a trade union for journalists in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland and has more than 38,000 members. He is member of Irish Executive Council (IFC) of NUJ.

Meraj become Director of Europe for Pakistan Media Development Foundation (PMDF) 2016

An organization established by group of most senior journalists of Pakistan to support and strengthen the fraternity of professional working for media. In year 2019 PMDF arrange three International Conferences beside many national event. Media professional around the world attended those conferences.

PMDF work can be seen on www.pmdf.pk

Beside his media work Meraj has many years' management experience in hospitality industry. He worked for Ireland's Top hotels such as Powerscourt Hotel Resort & Spa and Hotel Riu plaza The Gresham Dublin.